In the Name of Allāh, the Mercy Full, the Bestower of Mercy

We begin by thanking Allāh for the blessings of ʿIslām and we ask for benedictions of Allāh and peace upon our liege lord, Muḥammad and upon his family and faithful companions until the end of time.

In this orison or ḥizb of the Folk of aṣḥ-Shādhḍulī there is a gathering of some of the prayers by which Allāh has answered the Prophets, peace be upon them all, and their Master, the Mercy to the worlds and the Seal of the Prophets, Muḥammad, blessings of Allāh and peace be upon him.

These supplications {daʿawāt} are true worship of Allāh. In them there is the pleasure of confiding in Him and the pleasure of being near Him. There is the pleasure of contentment from Allāh, the pleasure of what Allāh fulfills by answering and by mercies given for our belief. That is why the true prayers are, as the Messenger, peace and blessing be upon him, said, the very brains {mukḥ} of worship. From this understanding the Ṣūfis built their system of invocation, which they call ʿaḥzāb. Their persistence in reading them, by what is in them of the Names of Allāh and His Secrets, causes their ‘selfs’, their faith and their belief to rise up.

This ḥizb was orally transmitted by our Ṣaykh, ʿAlī Abū-l-Ḥasan aṣḥ-Shādhḍulī, may Allāh sanctify his secret, who received it in a veridical dream {ruʾyā} under the direct personal inspiration {ʾilhām} of Sayyidinā Muḥammad, blessings of Allāh and peace be upon him.

Sīdī Abū-l-Ḥasan spoke of the ḥizb as “The Instrument of Protection and Prevention” {al-ʿadati-l-wiqāyah}. He said that if it is read in any place, that place is preserved from harm, any jinn are dispelled, the fearful are made secure, the sick one is cured and the anxious one is made peaceful.

When our Ṣaykh, may Allāh perfume his resting place, on his way to another Ḥajj, was dying in the Upper Ægyptian desert near Humaythīrah he gathered together all of his students {muridūn} for the last time.

He said, “Continue with the Ḥizb al-Baḥr. Teach it to your children. In it is the Greatest Name {al-ʾismu-l-ʿaḍḥam}.”

Ṣaykh Aḥmad az-Zarrūq, may Allāh sanctify his secret, said, “He that reads it at sunrise, Allāh will satisfy his need, cause him to reach his goal, remove his grief, raise his grade, cause him to be respected by the people, increase his faith and facilitate his affairs in this life and the next and protect him from evil whether by day or by night.”

Muhammad is the Messenger of Allāh.

Those with him are hard on the unbelievers {and} mercy full amongst themselves.

You see them bowing and prostrating —

seeking bounty from Allāh and His Acceptance. •

Their mark is on their faces — the trace of prostration. •

That is their likeness in the Torah • and their likeness in the Gospel:

{is} as a seed that puts forth its shoot and strengthens

— it grows full and rises straight upon its stalk, pleasing the sowers, that through them He may enrage the disbelievers. •

Allāh has promised those of them who believe and do deeds of righteousness, forgiveness and an immense reward .

Allāh — The Mercy Full

Then all read al-Fātiḥah five times

The first time for the prophet, blessings of Allāh and peace be upon him.

The second time for the people of his household, peace be upon them.

The third time for your ṣhaykh and all of the pure ṣhuyukḥ of all the turūq.

The fourth time for your own family.

The fifth time for all beings — past, present and future — on the Way to Allāh.

﴿ A Brief Note on the Transliteration of Arabic ﴾

We have used the standard MESA system modified as in Hart's Rules so that any Arabic letter ending in an 'h' sound (ṭh, ḍh, kh, sh, ḍh, gh) has been clearly distinguished as 'ḥ' to avoid confusion between it and a follow-on 'h'. In the case of al-hurifu-sh-shamsiyyah the 'l' in the article 'al' is absorbed as in 'ash-shams'. Assimilation (idghām) is indicated by a 'B' as in maṭiy-yashā' and echoing (qal-qalah) by using the unaccented mute 'ā' as in 'Ibrāhīm'. Transliteration at best is an approximate aid to correct Arabic pronunciation. In the absence of a teacher a careful listening to the recital of the Qur'ān by well known and widely accepted readers (qurrā') with text in hand should further clarify these tables.
